Strengths

- At Deloitte, strengths and passions are the things that make you feel empowered, successful, and happy.

Values

- Values are our compass to guide us through life
- They help us develop into the people we want to be, they give us direction
- Values help us to be direct and focused on the decisions we make.

Purpose

- A personal mission statement that gives meaning to your life.
- Purpose is the inspiration for why we do what we do
- It is not a long term goal or something you aspire to do.
- Purpose weaves through our education and work as well as our families, our friendships, our hobbies, our whole lives.

Passion

- People who pursue their passions and purposes often benefit from the experience in various ways.
- The emotion based motivation that fuels values and strengths based action toward fulfilling one's purpose.
- Activities that stimulate excitement, positive emotion and motivation.
- A meaningful life integrates the valued parts of your life.

Questions:

1. What is the interview process like? Behavioral interviews are very common.
2. Are Deloitte interviews in person or virtual? They are virtual, very conversational. Remember to share examples of both your technical and soft skills.
